(PR No. 159/2019)

President Dr. Arif Alvi meets Iranian President Dr. Hassan Rouhani today, on the sidelines of 18th Non-Aligned Movement Summit in Baku, Azerbaijan.

Baku, October 25, 2019: The President said that Pakistan considers Iran as an important country as both countries share more than 900 km border. A strong people-to-people contact has further strengthened the bond of friendship between the two countries.

President Alvi said that both the countries need to fully utilize the trade potential to further enhance bilateral economic relations.

President Alvi briefed the Iranian President on the continuous lockdown and the human rights violations in the Indian Occupied Jammu & Kashmir (IOJK). The President thanked the Iranian leadership for its continued commitment and support towards oppressed people of IOJK.
