(PR No.69/2018)

ISLAMABAD MARCH 29, 2018: President Mamnoon Hussain has said that future belongs to the new generation, therefore, it is imperative that the youth should be saved from despair. It can be achieved through better training along-with education and the services of Ghulam Ishaq Institute (GIK) are remarkable in this regard, he added.

The President said this while talking to the delegation of Board of Governors, GIK Institute led by Engr. Shams ul Mulk who called on him at the Aiwan-e-Sadr, Islamabad on Thursday. Special Assistant to the Prime Minister Khawaja Zaheer, Shakeel Durrani and senior officials were also present on the occasion.

The President stated that GIK institute is one of the leading institutions in the field of education and research which has produced invaluable experts for the development and progress of the country. This institution has achieved the status of national assets and its development and protection is the responsibility of the entire nation, he said.
