

PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT (PUBLIC)

PRESS WING

Islamabad, October 19, 2017:- President Mamnoon Hussain has said that bilateral relations between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia will further expand and deepen with each passing day. He stated that both countries are linked together in historical, religious and cultural relations and the people of the two countries enjoy sincere fraternal relations.

The President said this while talking to Ambassador of Saudi Arabia to Pakistan Commodore Nawaf Saeed Ahmad Almalki who called on him here at Aiwan-e-Sadr, Islamabad on Thursday.

The President hoped that cooperation and relations between the two brotherly countries will further grow in the coming days. While welcoming the interest being taken by Saudi Arabia in China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC), he underlined that this project will have positive and far-reaching impact.

Expressing grave concern over the deteriorating situation in Burma and Yemen, the President emphasized that the Muslim Ummah should work in unison to address these issues.
